

The First Oval Office Project: All Who Were There

Step inside George Washington's war tent — America's first "Oval Office" — and experience the stories of the people whose sacrifices shaped a new nation.

Saturday, December 13
10:00 AM – 5:00 PM

The Brearley House

100 Meadow Road
Lawrence Township, NJ
(Free parking at 2000 Lenox Drive)

Admission is free and open to all.

Presented by
Lawrence Historical Society
in partnership with the
Museum of the American Revolution

Lawrence Historical Society

Museum of the American Revolution

Support the Tent!

With Gratitude to Our Sponsors

Founding Benefactor: Matthew A. Peluso, Esq.
Founders' Circle: Lawrence Township Community Foundation, Mercer County Division of Culture and Heritage, Noel Goeke
Heritage Alliance: Crossroads of the American Revolution, Ewing Township Historic Preservation Society, Historical Society of West Windsor, Hopewell Valley Historical Society, Stoutsburg Sourland African American Museum, Trenton Historical Society
Sustaining Partners: Hilton Garden Inn Princeton Lawrenceville, Old Barracks Museum