The Lawrence Township Patriotic Committee selects Lawrence Township Police Sergeant Shaun Sexton to Serve as Grand Marshal for the 2022 Lawrence Township Memorial Day Parade.

(Lawrence Township – April 16th, 2022) The Lawrence Township Patriotic Committee selects Sergeant Shaun Sexton to serve as Grand Marshal for the 2022 Memorial Day Parade, which begins at 10:00 AM on Saturday May 28th, 2022 and concludes at Lawrence Veterans Park at the Veterans Memorial for ceremonial services.

Shaun Sexton was born and raised in the City of Trenton, attending St. Hedwig’s Grammar School and graduating from McCorristin Catholic High School in 1997. Shortly after graduation, Shaun joined the United States Army Reserves and attended basic training. In 2003, he was activated by the Army Reserves and deployed to Iraq for Operation Iraqi Freedom, where he served from March 2004 to March 2005, and received an Honorable Discharge shortly after returning, completing his service with the rank of Sergeant.

In September 2009, Shaun was hired by the Lawrence Township Police Department and is currently a Patrol Sergeant in the Patrol Division. Shaun has been a resident of Lawrence Township since 2006, and enjoys spending time with his girlfriend Katy Bedford and their three-year-old daughter Savannah. He is active in the community: serving as the Post Commander of the American Legion Post #458 (North Trenton Post), and is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post #3022 located in Lawrenceville N.J.

“The Township of Lawrence is a community that is steeped in history and takes great pride in its past. Memorial Day has traditionally been a time when the town remembers the past and more importantly pays tribute to those who have paid the ultimate price to maintain our freedom.”
