

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lawrence Township Council Honors Jeopardy Champion Jamie Ding with Official Proclamation

Lawrence Township, NJ — The Township Council of Lawrence Township proudly announced the anticipated adoption of a resolution honoring resident Jamie Ding for his extraordinary achievement on the iconic quiz show Jeopardy!.

Ding has made history as a 31-time champion, amassing an impressive $882,605 in winnings and securing his place as the 5th highest-winning contestant of all time. His remarkable run not only establishes him as the most successful Jeopardy! contestant in New Jersey history, but also cements his status as the greatest Jeopardy! player the state has ever seen.

“Jamie’s incredible achievement is a testament to his intellect, dedication, and composure under pressure,” the resolution states. “His success brings pride and distinction to our community while inspiring residents, especially students, the value of knowledge and lifelong learning.”

Mayor Christopher Bobbitt said, “Lawrence Township is incredibly proud of Jamie Ding and the remarkable achievement he has shown the entire nation. Jamie’s success on Jeopardy! reflects the kind of intellectual excellence and community spirit that makes Lawrence Township such a special place to live. We are honored to recognize him with this proclamation and look forward to celebrating his legacy for years to come.”

Councilwoman Bonne O’Flanagan Giglio said, “What Jamie Ding achieved on the national stage is nothing short of remarkable. He has put Lawrence Township on the map in an unforgettable way, and we are proud to call him one of our own. His success is a shining example of what can be achieved through dedication and a love of learning. Our entire community celebrates this incredible milestone with him.”

Councilwoman Amanda Santos said, “I’m thrilled to congratulate Jamie Ding on his incredible run of consecutive victories on Jeopardy! and for representing our community with intelligence, confidence, and heart. Jamie is a true hometown hero, and it’s wonderful to see someone from Lawrenceville shining on the national stage.”

Ding’s historic performance has placed Lawrence Township in the national spotlight, showcasing the community as one that fosters excellence and academic achievement.

The Township Council extends its heartfelt congratulations to Jamie Ding, who will attend the Lawrence Township Council Meeting on Tuesday, May 19 at 6:30 p.m. to be formally recognized and presented with the resolution as a symbol of the community’s pride and admiration.

About Lawrence Township

Lawrence Township is a vibrant community located in Mercer County, New Jersey, situated between the state capital of Trenton and Princeton. Home to approximately 34,000 residents, Lawrence Township offers a diverse mix of residential neighborhoods, commercial centers, parks, and cultural amenities. The Township is known for its strong commitment to education, public service, and community engagement, and takes pride in the accomplishments of its residents on both local and national stages.

###

For more information, please contact:

Kevin P. Nerwinski, Esq.
Municipal Manager/QPA
manager@lawrencetwp.com
Telephone: (609) 844-7005